Position and Policy Regarding Reduction of the Investment Unit

1. Position regarding reduction of the investment unit

KOSÉ Corporation recognizes that a reduction of the investment unit is one effective means of improving the liquidity of its shares and expanding the investor base.

2. Policy on reduction of the investment unit

Having studied the current share price, trading volume, and shareholding structure, KOSÉ considers that conditions are sufficient to ensure the necessary liquidity. Therefore, there is no plan to reduce investment units at this time.

KOSÉ will continue to examine about a reduction of the investment unit from multiple perspectives, taking into account future trends in the stock market, its share price and shareholding structure, and other factors.

Note: This disclosure is carried out pursuant to Rule 409 of the Securities Listing Regulations (Disclosure of Lowering Investment Units) as prescribed by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. KOSÉ is subject to the rule because its investment units exceeded 500,000 yen as of December 31, 2021.
